Charles Crane and W. G. Tut- Easterners Talk of Putting in tle Appear in Police Court.

MAKE PLEA OF "NOT GUILTY"

SAY THAT THERE ARE EXTEN-UATING CIRCUMSTANCES.

Pleas of not guilty were entered by Charles Crane and W. G. Tuttle yesterday afternoon in the police court to the charge of violating the city ordinance requiring the sewering of all residences in the extended district. Mr. Crane, whose property is located at 928 East South Temple street, announced that he was ready for trial at once, but the case was continued until 2 p. m. today.

Mr. Tuttle stated that he represented Californians street. Mr. Tuttle stated that as soon as possible the house would be vacated. Judge Diehl suggested that Mr. Tuttle take the matter up with Assistant City Attorney Willey, as the case hardly seemed one for the criminal court. This disposition was made of the case, a plea of not guilty having in the meantime been entered upon the books.

Tuttle were called. Mr. Crane said last because there has been nothing on my part that would indicate I was defying the order of the board of health in rethe order of the board of health in re-gard to sewering property. I laid speci-fications before a plumber some time ago and he told me the work would cost about $200. I then decided to change my house around so as to face upon M street instead of Brigham. In that case the plumbing work would have been wasted. I am just in the midst of my plans when the board in-forms me that connections must be Messrs. Crane and Tuttle are out on
